Robinson & Wilkes, Ltd. cited in San Antonio Express-News “S.A.’s small firms gain exposure as their performance soars”

San Antonio – September 24, 2006 – Value-oriented, somewhat contrarian investment management firm Robinson & Wilkes, Ltd. was one of 5 local money managers interviewed in an article for the Express-News.

The article states that “Managed assets at the large cap value firm went from $44 million to $61 million,” from September 2004 to September 2006.

“An in-house person, for us, has been the most effective way to go,” Charles Robinson, CFA said in the interview regarding how small money managers are growing their businesses in San Antonio.
